FREE TRANSLATION, NOT TO THE LETTER

México City, January 16th, 2016

Wal-Mart de México, S.A.B. de C.V. (BMV: WALMEX) hereby informs its shareholders and the public in general that it has started the process to consider potential third-party offers that, if consummated, would lead to the sale of its Suburbia apparel division. This decision is aligned to the company strategy to focus on its core business.

The process is in its early stages and there are no assurances that a transaction will take place or other terms and conditions of a potential transaction.

Suburbia is an apparel specialty retailer for the entire family and due to the solid work of the team of associates is one of the leading companies in the segment. Currently, Suburbia has a strong nationwide footprint with 117 stores strategically located across 44 cities in 32 states in Mexico. For the year ended, December 31, 2014, Suburbia accounted for 3.5% of consolidated sales of Walmex.
